Date 11-03-2022

The Branch Manager
HDFC Bank Limited
.....Branch

Dear Sir,

With reference to my request for outward remittance of USD 26600 (currency & amount) to Drivewealth, LLC (beneficiary name) for investment in equity/debt securities under Liberalised Remittance Scheme, I hereby confirm and declare as under –

1. The above remittance is towards my Portfolio Investment in Equity/Debt Securities (*) of M/s _____ (name of the investee company/entity). [ Please score out whichever is not applicable*].
2. The above investment does not fall under the category of Overseas Direct Investment requiring ODI reporting to Reserve Bank of India.
3. I have not subscribed and am not subscribing to the Memorandum of Association of above named investee company/entity.
4. I have not undertaken any financial commitment, such as OCPS/Loan/Guarantee etc. in the past in the above named investee company/entity.
5. The above named investee company/entity has not been and is not being incorporated by me.
6. The above named investee company/entity is not a Joint Venture or Wholly Owned Subsidiary of mine where I have acquired / plan to acquire a majority stake.
7. I am not an active investor managing the affairs of the above named investee company/entity.
8. The above remittance is not towards pre-incorporation expenses/ registration of a new venture to be controlled by me.

I am aware that any wrong declaration made above amounts to willful contravention of the provisions of FEMA, 1999. I am also aware that in such cases, the bank may initiate reporting of the matter to regulatory authorities.

Yours faithfully

(Name: Thimmaiah Chendrimada)

(Note:- If the remitter is not in a position to certify any of the points from 3 to 8 above, the remittance should be treated as Overseas Direct Investment which requires additional documentation and reporting to RBI. Such transactions should not be processed by the retail branch and should be routed through the nearest trade desk).
